The imminent arrival of former King CAROL II will cause an embarrassing situation for General RADESCU. They know each other well, but have always been political enemies and the General thoroughly dislikes the King personally. It was due to the General's open objection to the King's dictatorial measures that he was forced out of the army; RADESCU will not forgive this. But news has reached Lisbon from Rio that CAROL has expressed the wish to see RADESCU while both are in Lisbon. It is believed that the General will refuse to see the King.
